INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

14th August 2021

"At the Stroke of midnight hour, when the world sleeps, India will awake to life and freedom."

-Jawahar Lal Nehru

BVIMR celebrated 75th Independence Day with much zeal and enthusiasm. Due to the Coronavirus pandemic, the event took place at 11:30 am on Microsoft Teams platform.

The online celebration started with the theme 'Remembering our Freedom Fighters'. Director ma'am, Dr. Yamini Agarwal addressed the event and expressed her patriotic feelings towards the nation. Students of Kalakriti-The Fine Arts Society, Shelly Sharma, Saiesha Gupta, Arushi Mohindroo, Dolshi Beri, Vasu Popli and Yashika Jain exhibited handmade posters on Independence Day and expressed the ideas of inspiration behind them. It was followed by Shivam Kawatra, Nikita and Garvita Chawla, members of Qasid- The Literary Society reciting poems dedicated to courageous freedom fighters of the country. The recitation filled everybody with feelings of pride and patriotism. It reminded them of sacrifices made by the freedom fighters. Various faculty members graced the occasion by singing patriotic songs. Faculty members Mr. Mahesh Kumar Chaubey and Ms. Roopam Jyoti Das mesmerized everyone with their melodious voice. Faculty member Dr. A.K. Srivastav addressed the students and inspired them to always respect our country and its values.

The celebration event was followed by an online quiz on Independence Day which witnessed enthusiastic participation by all the students.

The event was made possible under the guidance of faculty coordinator Ms Anuradha Nain. Efforts of student coordinators Vaibhav Monga and Girish Goenka and were pertinent in making the event a success.
