To,

The Principal/ Director of all constituent units of Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University)

Sub: An attempt to reduce unfairmeans during the University Examinations.

Sir/Madam,

We understand that at the college level there are steps undertaken by you to curb the problems of use of unfairmeans by the student during examination.

With an aim to reduce unfairmeans by the students during the examinations, you are requested to undertake various precautionary measures to reduce the use of unfairmeans by students. Following are few ways which may be implemented at the college level before and during examinations.

- Display of notice regarding disciplinary action against unfairmeans at examination halls, outside examination halls, through social media, through other online system, etc.
- Announcement before examination to the students about the rules and regulations of the examination and disciplinary action regarding use of unfairmeans.
- Regular training to invigilators for curbing the unfairmeans resorted to by students during examinations.
- Undertaking submitted by student before examination to abide by rules and regulations of examination.

A proforma of undertaking is hereby enclosed which may be filled by student before the examinations. You may use the proforma as it is or you may modify as per your requirements.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
